

Dorothy L. (White) Manley, 92, of Erie, passed away Wednesday, January 6, 2021 at St. Mary's Home of Erie.

She was born on December 24, 1928 in Pittsburgh, PA, daughter of the late Rhea and Genevieve (Bass) White.

Dorothy was Co-Owner of the Lakewood Pharmacy. She was a member of the Lakewood United Methodist Church, Daughters of the Nile, and the volunteer sewing group at the Shriners Hospital for Children.

Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Bruce Manley, her daughter-in-law, Dr. Renay Manley and two sisters.

She is survived by her daughter, Jean Himes and her husband, Robert of Erie; sons, David Manley of Park City, Utah and Robert Manley and his wife, Denise of Dayton, OH; seven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

The family would like to thank the staff at St. Mary's Home East for the compassionate, loving care that was shown to Dorothy.

Due to the COVID-19 restrictions, funeral arrangements are private and at the convenience of the family, with a celebration of life service to be held at a later date. Funeral arrangements under the direction of the Merle E. Wood Funeral Home, 845 East 38th Street. Send condolences to www.merlewoodfh.com

Memorials may be made to Lakewood United Methodist Church or the Shriners Hospital for Children.
